Kingswear Rowing Club - Summary of Safety Code

1. Club members should be aware of the correct procedures for contacting the emergency services including the Coastguard and should be aware of the nearest telephone and first aid equipment to the mooring.
2. The limit of operation of the Club for insurance purposes is the River Dart. No boat may be taken beyond a straight line drawn between Kingswear and Dartmouth Castles unless manned by an experienced crew and cox.
3. Crews must never row without a suitably experienced, Rowing Club approved, coxswain.
4. In failing light or dangerous conditions, the coxswain will return the boat to its mooring.
5. The safe stowage and correct use of safety equipment is the responsibility of all crew members at all times.
6. All damage or losses must be immediately reported to the Bosun or Chairman.
7. Personal lifejackets must be used by non-swimmers, crew members under 16 and the coxswain if the crew contains one or more members under 16.
8. Coxswains must be fully aware of the International Rules for the Prevention of Collision at Sea and have a thorough understanding of any local bylaws, which might apply. Together with the Rowers, the Coxswain is specifically responsible for ensuring all bylaws and club rules are adhered to.
